 During Nov. & Dec. see the Baldknobbers Christmas Show

The Branson family entertainment phenomenon began over 50 years ago in 1959 when the four Mabe brothers, known as the Baldknobbers, began entertaining visitors on the Branson lake front.

Today, the family legacy continues to wow audiences by delivering everything from traditional country to today's #1 hits and lots of side-splitting comedy. Now, the 2nd & 3rd generations of the Mabe family carry on the family tradition of performing an all new show each year.

Both longtime Baldknobbers' fans and new fans alike appreciate the Baldknobbers' family traditions that have made this show popular from generation to generation.

In 2011, the Baldknobbers original costumes, instruments and artifacts were added to the permanent collection of the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History.

Each year the Baldknobbers perform an ALL NEW SHOW! New Music and Songs! New Costuming! ...and lots and lots of New Comedy!

The Baldknobbers Theatre is located in the heart of the Branson theater district on the famed Highway 76 strip or "76 Country Boulevard".

Adding 17 matinees for 2012!
